Director’s Message

As the vibrant colors of autumn give way to the crisp chill of winter, we are reminded of what a special time of year this is in Sheridan. Fall is a season of change, and as we transition into winter, we continue to come together as a community to enjoy recreation, wellness, and connection.

With our fall sports having officially come to a close, we are excited to dive right into an action-packed winter schedule. The courts will soon be buzzing with energy as we get into youth basketball and adult volleyball. We also have a fantastic lineup of community events on the horizon, including our Halloween Run, Turkey Bingo, and the highly anticipated Youth Winter Shootout.

Beyond our organized sports and events, the changing weather invites us to experience the outdoors in new ways. Whether you are cross-country skiing through fresh snow or taking a peaceful winter hike, there is no shortage of adventure. I encourage you to bundle up, step outside, and continue enjoying the beautiful parks and trails that Sheridan has to offer.

With the holiday season right around the corner, this is a wonderful time for reflection and connection. It is the perfect opportunity to slow down, spend quality time with family and friends, and find joy in the changing seasons.

Here’s to a season filled with activity, beauty, and community.
